Suspect Identified Shooting and Robbery Investigation: 100 Block of Doolittle Road

The Hampton Police Division is seeking the public's assistance in locating, Phillip Robert Brooks, who is wanted in connection with a shooting and robbery that occurred on May 3, 2015.

At 2:37 a.m., Hampton Police responded to the Sentara Careplex in reference to a shooting victim that had walked into the emergency room for treatment. The investigation has revealed that the victim, a 34-year-old Hampton man, was in the 100 blk of Doolittle Road when he was approached by a known individual who produced a handgun and demanded the victim's property. The suspect took an undisclosed amount of U.S. currency and a cell phone from the victim and then shot the victim one time. The suspect then fled the area on foot. Afterwards, the victim drove himself to the Sentara Careplex for treatment of non-life threatening injuries.

Phillip Robert Brooks, a 24-year-old Hampton man with a last known address in the 200 block of Salt Pond Road, is wanted in connection with this incident. He currently has warrants on file for one count of Maiming, one count of Robbery, one count of Possession of a Firearm by Convicted Felon and two counts of Using of a Firearm in Commission of a Felony.
